In addition to lifelong musical skills, personal enrichment, and cultural sensitivity, studying music helps develop essential transferable job skills such as critical thinking, collaboration, presentation, and responsibility.

What can I do with a music degree?

- K-12 Music Educator
  - Band
  - Choir
  - Orchestra
  - General Music
  - Musical Theatre
  - Jazz
- Freelance Musician
  - Accompanist
  - Adjudicator
  - Clinician
  - Performer
  - Commercial Entertainment
  - Independent Studio Teacher
- Admin/Business
  - Agent
  - Publisher
  - Personnel Manager
  - Royalty Accountant
  - Retail Sales
- Health-Related
  - Music Therapist
  - Activities Director
  - Wellness Coordinator
- Higher Education
  - Professor
  - Administration
  - Recruitment
  - Academic Advisor
  - Operations/Logistics
- Technical
  - Acoustic Engineer
  - Electronic Production/Design
  - Audio Production
  - Instrument Builder
  - Instrument Repair/Maintenance
  - Piano Technician
  - Organ Builder/Technician
- Creative Writing
  - Editor
  - Engraver/Copyist
  - Music Critic
  - Arts Journalist
- Sacred Music
  - Cantor/Soloist
  - Chorus Director
  - Orchestra Director
  - Hand Bells Director
  - Pianist
  - Organist
  - Praise Band Leader
- Ensemble
  - Band
  - Chorus
  - Jazz Band
  - Military
  - Conductor
  - Opera
  - Orchestra
  - Studio