Welcome to the music program of the Department of Visual & Performing Arts. This handbook was created to answer the most often asked questions posed by music students and will address much of the information needed to successfully complete music studies at USCA. In no way can it cover all of the policies of either the Department of Visual and Performing Arts or the University of South Carolina Aiken. It is but one of two reference materials that should be utilized as an undergraduate music student at the University of South Carolina Aiken. The other is the University of South Carolina Aiken Bulletin. It is your responsibility to become familiar with the information in these documents and to refer to them whenever necessary.

MISSION AND VISION STATEMENT

Music at the University of South Carolina Aiken strives to enrich students and community with meaningful and enriching arts experiences. Beyond offering traditional student performing ensembles, the music program hosts performing ensembles for the greater Aiken community. Other cultural opportunities exist through the twenty-five independent arts organizations in Aiken, many of which coordinate and sponsor performances and master classes for students at USCA.

Emphasizing small classes and individual attention, study in music is fostered in an atmosphere that encourages personal and musical growth and nurtures individual accountability and leadership. Students are challenged to think critically and creatively, to communicate effectively, and to acquire a breadth and depth of knowledge in their chosen field.

As a part of the liberal arts curriculum, all students at USCA may find a variety of opportunities within the music program by participating in music classes, musical ensembles, or applied lessons. Students opting to pursue music as a part of their coursework may choose from the Bachelor of Arts – Major in Fine Arts program of study (with a concentration in music) or the Bachelor of Arts – Major in Music Education program of study, or a minor in music.

Classes are held in the Etherredge Center, a performing arts complex completed in 1986 that houses two theatres, art galleries, class rooms, faculty offices, and practice rooms. The Daniel K. Miller Library is also housed in the Etherredge Center, which contains thousands of records and sheet music for classical, jazz, and popular music. Student research may be conducted in the Gregg-Graniteville Library, which holds all printed music, books, periodicals, and recordings, as well as on-line research tools and resources.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

Bachelor of Arts – Major in Fine Arts

The Bachelor of Arts – Major in Fine Arts program of study is designed to prepare students for success in a variety of professions in the visual and performing arts. The Fine Arts program of study is a multi-disciplinary degree, ensuring students will be exposed to each of the three primary areas of study – art, music, and theatre – all while retaining the ability to specialize in one area of study within the visual and performing arts. While there are no defined concentrations within the Fine Arts program of study, many students pursue one of the three primary areas in order to receive specialized training or preparation for further academic study. However, the option always remains for students to receive a broad understanding of the fine arts without an emphasis on one particular area of study.

The music program offers courses in music theory and history, conducting, ensembles, as well as applied instrumental and voice studies. The flexibility of the Fine Arts degree allows students to receive a breadth of musical experiences through participation in general music studies, or to concentrate studies and attain a depth of knowledge in the areas of composition, performance, or musicology.

Bachelor of Arts – Major in Music Education

The Bachelor of Arts – Major in Music Education is designed to prepare students to teach music in the public or private school setting. The Music Education program of study is a professional degree and is offered in cooperation with the USCA School of Education. As a part of program of study, there are multiple opportunities to observe and interact with public school students and educators, providing enriching experiences in preparation for internship. In addition, there are many opportunities for musical growth, including participation in community and university ensembles, experiences in chamber groups, or individual performance through participation in student recitals. Students studying music education have the option to study pedagogical and applied techniques in the areas of elementary general music, choral studies, or instrumental studies. Graduates of the degree will be certified to teach either K-12 choral or instrumental music.

Minor in Music

The Minor in Music is designed to provide prefatory studies in music and allow for active participation in applied studies or performing ensembles. The music minor requires eighteen credit hours of study in the areas of music theory, music history, applied studies, performing ensembles, and piano instruction.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Each Music Education Major and Bachelor of Arts-Major in Fine Arts emphasis in music is assigned to a music faculty member for academic advisement. Advising usually occurs two weeks prior to registration. Sign-up sheets will be posted on your academic advisors door for appointment times. Advisors will help to guide students in their course selection and course sequence for their major. Students are asked to be prepared with a written draft of selected courses for the next semester.

Student Preparation for Advising
1. Sign up for an advising appointment with your advisor.
2. Go to your University Bulletin and look up the courses needed to complete your program of study. Use the advisory course planner for your major as a reference. The advisory course planner can be seen below or may be accessed through the “Current Students” then “Academic Information” section of the USCA music website.
3. Go online and print your grades for each semester you have attended the University of South Carolina Aiken. Grades can be accessed through Self Service Carolina (SSC).
4. Compare the courses you have taken as listed on your grade report with your University Bulletin and advisory course planner and determine the courses you should take the next semester.
5. Make a list of the courses and go to the USCA homepage, click on academics, and then on course scheduling.
6. Prepare a preliminary schedule and take it to your advising appointment.

Should be taken before second year. Passing scores required for admission to the Professional Program. Students receiving 1100 on the 2-part SAT, 1650 on the 3-part SAT, or 24 on the ACT are exempt from taking Praxis Core. If you believe you are exempt from the exam, take proof of your scores to the School of Education office.

PRAXIS II (Music: Content and Instruction)
Passing scores must be received by the School of Education Office by July 20th to be able to intern in the fall, and by December 15th in order to be able to intern in the spring. Praxis II is a requirement for Admission to the Internship.

PLT (Prin. of Learn and Teach: Early Childhood or Prin. of Learn and Teach: Grades K-6 or Prin. of Learn and Teach: Grades 5-9 or Prin. of Learn and Teach: Grades 7-12)
Students may choose one of the four listed exams. PLT should be taken at beginning of Internship (September or January). Passing scores must be received by the School of Education by December 1st for December graduates and May 1st for May graduates. Failure to pass the PLT will delay graduation.

Professional Program Application
By the end of your sophomore year or beginning of your junior year, apply to the Professional Program. Applications are due February 1st for Fall admittance and October 1st for Spring admittance. In order to enroll in Professional Education courses, students must be admitted to the Professional Program. The application and requirements can be found online on the USC School of Education website.

Internship Program Application
All candidates planning on interning in either the fall or spring of the following academic year need to submit an internship application by January 15th. The application and requirements can be found online on the USC School of Education website.
Internship Portfolio

Students interning in the Fall semester must submit a Program Portfolio no later than February 15th and students interning in the Spring must submit no later than October 15th. Guidelines for the portfolio can be found online on the USCA School of Education website. Successful completion of the portfolio is required to be eligible for internship.

SC DoEd Certification Application and Fingerprinting

Prior to internship, candidates are required to complete an on-line application for certification for the SC Department of Education and register for fingerprinting. For fall interns, application and fingerprinting are due the semester prior to internship in January. For spring interns, application and fingerprinting are due a year prior to internship in April. The School of Education arranges a day for the fingerprinting to occur and notifies candidates approximately a month prior to the application and registration process. There is a $105 certification application fee (payable to the SC Dept of Ed) and a $54.25 fingerprinting fee (payable to L-1 Solutions) due at submission of certification application.

MUSIC AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIP AUDITIONS

Awards and scholarships auditions, which occur during the spring semester, are the sole means for identifying and recognizing qualified students for further study on their instrument. To be eligible for an award or scholarship, students must have at least a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.75 in all coursework, a minimum 3.0 GPA in music courses, and be a student in good standing with faculty and staff of the Visual & Performing Arts Department. Incoming students may qualify for an award or scholarship with an SAT score of at least 1000. Some awards require certain qualifications; make sure to discuss whether you qualify for an award or scholarship with your applied teacher or the Instrumental or Vocal Studies Chair before auditioning.

Notification of any award or scholarship offer will occur by mail. All awards and scholarships are applied toward payment of tuition for the following year and are divided equally between the two semesters.

Audition Process
Returning students should prepare and perform two contrasting selections for the audition. An accompanist will be provided. Please provide an original copy of both selections for your accompanist and photocopied excerpts for the instrumental faculty. Photocopied excerpts should not be more than one-third (1/3) of the length of the work. In addition to the prepared selections, students will be asked to sight-read, without accompaniment or assistance from a keyboard, before the music faculty. Students will be given time to study and evaluate the piece, prior to performance. Sight-reading will be 50% of the total score for the audition. Following the audition, students may be asked a few general or musical questions by the faculty.

New students, transfer students, or high school seniors should prepare and perform two contrasting selections. Information concerning specific requirements may be found on the USCA music website. An accompanist will be provided for students if necessary. Please provide an original copy of both selections for your accompanist and photocopied excerpts for the instrumental faculty. Photocopied excerpts should not be more than one-third (1/3) of the length of the work. Pre-recorded accompaniment or background performance tracks are not acceptable for the audition. In addition to the prepared selections, students may be asked to sight-read. Students will be given sufficient time to study prior to performance. Following the audition, students will have an opportunity to meet the faculty and ask any questions they may have.

For complete information regarding appropriate literature and requirements for auditions refer to the USCA Music Department website at www.usca.edu/visualandperformingarts/music.html.

The number of copies shall not exceed one copy per pupil.
3. Printed copies which have been purchased may be edited or simplified provided that the fundamental character of the work is not distorted or the lyrics, if any, altered or lyrics added if none exist.
4. A single copy of recordings of performance by students may be made for evaluation or rehearsal purposes and may be retained by the educational institution or individual teacher.
5. A single copy of a sound recording (such as a tape, disc or cassette) of copyrighted music may be made from sound recordings owned by an educational institution or an individual teacher for the purpose of constructing aural exercises or examinations and may be retained by the educational institution or individual teacher. (This pertains only to the copyright of the music itself and not to any copyright which may exist in the sound recording.)

WHEN I MAY NOT PHOTOCOPY!
The following are expressively prohibited:
1. Copying to avoid purchase
2. Copying music for any kind of performance, with the following emergency exception:
3. Making a copy of a lost part in an emergency, if it is replaced with a purchased part in due course.
4. Copying without including copyright notice
5. Copying to create anthologies or compilations
6. Reproducing material designed to be consumable, such as workbooks, standardized tests and answer sheets
7. Charging customers beyond the actual cost involved in making copies as permitted (as noted in "When Can I Photocopy")

APPLIED LESSONS

Applied Lesson Fees
$125.00 for 1 credit hour lesson
$250.00 for 2 credit hours lesson

Length and Number of Lessons
- Lessons are at least 50 minutes in length (for two semester credits) or 25 minutes in length (for one semester credit);
- There will be a maximum of fifteen lessons per semester;
- Any student having fewer than the equivalent of ten lessons will receive a failing grade in voice;
- Lessons missed by a teacher due to illness or other reasons will be made up. Student absences may be made up at the discretion of the private teacher; however, the teacher has the prerogative not to grant a make-up lesson due to student absence.

STUDIO CLASS AND STUDENT RECITALS

Although these classes are not taken for specific credit, it is required of all applied students to attend all studio classes as a part of Applied Lessons. Studio classes will be arranged at the discretion of each individual teacher. Dates and times may be placed in the studio syllabus.

Studio Class
This group comprises those students studying with a particular teacher. The class is structured by the individual teacher and may include demonstrations, discussions, and performances. An accompanist is not provided.

Student Recital
This class allows students to experience performing before a large group comprised of all vocal and instrumental studios. Students who perform in this class are asked to exhibit appropriate performance behavior and dress. Students in the audience are expected to be supportive and respectful, observing accepted concert etiquette. All instrumental students, regardless of program of study or emphasis, are encouraged to perform. Depending upon the studio, students may be required to perform. Like Studio Class, this class is structured by the music faculty and may include demonstrations, discussions, and performances.

In order to perform during a Student Recital, the student should complete a Student Recital Request Form. These forms may be obtained online on the USCA music website under “current students” then “recital forms.” Once the form is completed and signed by the applied teacher, return all information to Dr. Richard Maltz. Please check the bulletin board for deadlines.

Attendance at studio classes is required. In the event a student has an unavoidable conflict, the student should notify the teacher as early as possible. The student should not assume absences will be allowed with notification. All students are responsible to receive confirmation with their applied teacher prior to the date of the class. Any student who is absent may receive a lowering of the semester letter grade, or may be required to complete a project such as a paper, listening assignment, extra reading, or any task as assigned by the applied teacher.
JURIES

During the exam period at the end of each semester, all students are required to complete a Jury, which serves as a culmination of the applied study. The number of prepared pieces required for a jury is dependent upon major and number of enrolled credit hours for the semester. (See your Applied Faculty member for further information.) Students should complete a Jury Sheet, have the applied teacher sign before the end of the semester, and bring the completed form to the exam. An accompanist will be provided. All written comments and critiques will be returned at the beginning of the following semester. This form is available online on the USCA music website.

Make-up Juries
Students should not miss juries without previous permission of the applied teacher and all incomplete juries must be made up. Students who do not complete the jury at the end of the semester will receive an incomplete and must follow the University of South Carolina Aiken policy for incomplete grades. Once the new semester begins, students have one week to fulfill the requirements of the jury. The student must confer with both the applied teacher and Instrumental or Vocal Studies Chair before the jury can be completed. Students who do not complete the jury will have a failing grade for the semester.

PIANO PROFICIENCY

Piano Proficiency guidelines for all music education majors may be found under the section Piano Information.
RECITAL REQUIREMENTS

All music education majors are required to complete at least one solo recital prior to Internship placement by the School of Education. Recitals must be at least thirty minutes in duration of solo literature. All solo music will be programmed in consultation with your applied instructor. Additional music may be programmed, such as duets, ensemble numbers, etc. with the approval of the teacher. While Fine Arts – Music majors are not required to complete a solo recital, it is strongly encouraged nonetheless.

RECITAL COMMITTEE

Every solo student recital must have a recital committee comprised of three faculty members; the applied teacher, the Instrumental or Vocal Studies Chair, and one faculty member of the student’s choosing. The committee will be present for a recital hearing and final recital.

RECITAL PROGRAMS

Programs should include the following information:

- Student name and instrument;
- Name of accompanist and any assisting instrumentalists;
- Date, time, and place;
- Repertoire, composer, and arranger (if necessary);
- Program notes;
- The program of study for which the student is a candidate;
- The name of the student’s applied teacher.

Program notes should include historical information about each composer and work being performed. The historical information need not be longer than one or two paragraphs in length. The student must present the notes to Instrumental or Vocal Studies Chair and Applied teacher at the pre-recital hearing.

SECURING A RECITAL DATE

Students are responsible for planning a recital date in consultation with the applied teacher and members of the recital committee. If the recital is to be held on campus, the student must also secure a date on the school calendar. Securing a recital date in the Etherredge Center may be done by scheduling an appointment with Jack Benjamin, Department Chair of the Visual and Performing Arts.

FINDING AND SECURING AN ACCOMPANIST

Accompanists are not provided for solo student recitals. It is the responsibility of every student to secure a pianist well in advance of the proposed recital date. Your applied teacher may be acquainted with specific pianists in the area or have a preferred pianist for you to use. It is suggested to use a student accompanist whenever feasible. It is also common courtesy to pay pianists for performing on the recital; make sure to ask your teacher for a standard fee to offer, but also ask the pianist when you first discuss the recital if the suggested fee is acceptable. Make sure both you and the pianist are in agreement on how much rehearsal time is involved, all pertinent dates are written down and understood, and payment amount and schedule is agreed upon.
RECITAL REVIEW

Students must complete and pass a recital review prior to the recital. The recital review must be passed before the recital can become official. Approximately two months prior to the proposed recital, complete a Recital Request Form, have your applied teacher sign the form, and return it to your academic advisor. This form may be obtained online on the USCA music website.

During the recital review, the student will be asked to perform as if it were the actual recital. The recital committee may choose to hear the entire recital, excerpts of selected works, or particular selections. Upon completion of the review, the committee will confer and accept or decline the proposed recital.

RECITAL PROCEDURES

The following information is an outline and checklist of activities, research, and consultations that will help to ensure a successful recital:

1. As early as one year in advance, begin to plan repertoire for your recital. Discuss with your applied instructor what literature would be suitable for your instrument.

2. Plan a recital date at least one semester in advance. Consult with your applied instructor when and where your recital should occur.

3. Organize a recital committee. For your recital, there must be three professors to grade your performance. As a common courtesy, ask (or remind) each of the three-committee members in person and via e-mail do not wait until the last minute. Secure members of your recital committee the semester prior to your proposed recital.

4. Hire an accompanist. Discuss with your advisor or applied instructor names (and phone numbers) of pianists in the area. Contact the pianist as early as possible, ask for rehearsal and performance rates, and book the pianist as soon as you have a tentative recital date. Again, ask the pianist in person or over the phone – do not send an e-mail or try to find an accompanist through someone else.

5. Complete the Recital Request Form and return it to your academic advisor. You may obtain a Recital Request Form online on the USCA music website. This form lists your recital date, committee members, program repertoire, and other pertinent information regarding your recital. Once you have completed the form, make sure your applied instructor signs it and return it to your advisor. This form should be returned prior to your recital review and will be kept on file until the completion of your recital.

6. Plan and organize a Recital Hearing in consultation with your recital committee. One semester in advance, coordinate a Recital Hearing. The Recital Hearing itself will occur approximately four weeks prior to the recital. This hearing is a preliminary performance of your recital for your committee. By the time of your Recital Hearing, all music should be prepared and you should be practicing regularly with your accompanist.

7. Begin research on your recital program and decide upon program order. As a part of your recital, you will be required to provide program information. This information includes all music to be performed (in performance order), composers, biographical data, and program notes about each individual work. All information must be typed and submitted to your academic advisor. Your recital program will be due at the time of your Recital Hearing and will be formatted and printed for you.

8. Plan and create a poster. Prior to your recital, make a poster to advertise your recital to friends, fellow music majors, and the USCA campus. Posters are optional, but a great way to promote your work and preparation to this point. Posters must be approved by the Student Life Office prior to being placed on campus.

9. Coordinate any reception or activities with the facilities host prior to the recital. Occasionally, students have a reception after the recital. This is perfectly acceptable, though an option for each person. If you decide to have a reception, discuss the logistics with your academic advisor and any contact you have at the place of your recital. Make sure it is permissible to have food and drink on the premises.
PIANO STUDIES INFORMATION

PIANO JURIES

During the exam period at the end of each semester, all students enrolled in Applied Piano or keyboard classes are required to complete a Piano Jury. Students should prepare and perform selections from memory during juries. Students should complete a Jury Sheet, have the applied teacher sign before the end of the semester, and bring the completed form to the exam. This form is available online on the USCA music website. All written comments and critiques will be returned at the beginning of the following semester. Piano Juries comprise 10% of the semester grade.

Piano Jury Requirements
Students should be prepared to demonstrate scales, chord progressions, arpeggios, and repertoire assigned during the semester. Two contrasting piano selections should be prepared, memorized, and performed for juries.

PIANO PROFICIENCY EXAM

All music education majors must successfully complete a Piano Proficiency Exam prior to their Internship placement by the School of Education. The exam may be completed concurrently with piano juries.

Procedure
1. Students wishing to complete the Piano Proficiency Exam should notify their classroom or applied instructor at the semester prior to the exam;
2. Every student must complete a Repertoire List Form prior to the exam, which is available on the USCA music website. This form is a cumulative list of etudes and literature studied. It is the student’s responsibility to have the applied teacher sign the form and notify the music faculty of the intent to complete the exam.
3. The exam is given one of the following grades by faculty vote:
   Pass: The student satisfactorily fulfilled the requirements of the exam.
   Conditional Pass: The student satisfied elements of the exam, but the faculty has concerns that are serious enough to merit a re-hearing at the next exam period. Any concerns or conditions of the re-hearing will be offered in writing and explained to the student by the applied teacher. If the concerns of the faculty are not addressed at the next hearing, the student may not proceed in the degree program until the current exam is adequately satisfied.
   Fail: The student must repeat the exam during the next exam period due to significant inadequacies in preparation. A second consecutive failure of the exam results in removal from the music education program until the student demonstrates significant improvement or re-auditions for the faculty.
4. Students will be notified of the results by mail. Decisions of the faculty are final.
5. A student may attempt the Piano Proficiency Exam twice.

Grievance Process
Should a student fail the exam a second time a grievance may be filed with the music faculty. The grievance should be submitted in writing and include a justification why the student believes the exam was adequately completed, or a proposed solution to meet the conditions of the exam. A faculty member will meet with the student and the applied teacher separately. Upon agreement of the faculty, the student will be permitted to re-take the exam at the next exam period.

Piano Proficiency Exam Requirements for Non-Music Education Majors
Students who are not majoring in music education do not need to complete the Piano Proficiency Exam.

INSTRUMENTAL STUDIES INFORMATION

Instrumental Level Exams and Procedures
Instrumental Level Exams are performance and repertoire outcomes every applied instrumental student must achieve to continue studying their applied instrument. There are two Instrumental Level Exams; the first exam must be completed by the end of the third semester of applied study, typically the middle of the second year of school; and the second exam must be completed by the end of the sixth semester of applied study, typically the end of the third year of school.

Procedure
1. Instrumental Level Exams occur at the end of the semester and may be completed concurrently with instrumental juries.
2. Every student taking the exam must complete a Repertoire List Form prior to the end of the semester. The Repertoire List Form is available online on the USCA music program main page under the "Current Students" tab or at the following link: http://etherredge.usca.edu/academics/music/pdf/Instrumental+Exam+Repertoire+List+Form.pdf
This form is a cumulative list of all works studied in Applied Instrument up to the time of the exam. It is the student’s responsibility to have the applied teacher sign the form and notify the Instrumental Studies Chair of the intent to complete the exam.
3. The tests are given one of the following grades by faculty vote:
   - Pass: The student may continue in Applied Instrument and work toward the next exam or recital.
   - Conditional Pass: The student satisfied elements of the exam, but the faculty has concerns that are serious enough to merit a re-hearing at the next exam period. Any concerns or conditions of the re-hearing will be offered in writing and explained to the student by the applied teacher. If the concerns of the faculty are not addressed at the next hearing, the student may not proceed to the next exam or recital until the current exam is adequately satisfied.
   - Fail: The student must repeat the exam during the next exam period due to significant inadequacies in preparation. A second consecutive failure of the exam results in removal from Applied Instrument until the student demonstrates significant improvement or re-auditions for the faculty.
4. Students will be notified of the results by mail. Decisions of the faculty are final.
5. A student may attempt any Instrumental Level Exam twice.

Grievance Process
Should the student fail the exam a second time, a grievance may be filed with the Instrumental Studies Chair. The grievance should be submitted in writing and include a justification why the student believes the exam was adequately completed or a proposed solution to meet the conditions of the exam. The chair will meet with the student and the applied teacher separately. Upon agreement of the teacher and chair, the student will be permitted to re-take the exam at the next exam period.

Conditions for an Exam Re-Take
Students may be asked to re-take either Instrumental Level Exam due to the following reasons:
- Insufficient repertoire, either in quantity or quality;
- Tone quality as it relates to the characteristic sound of the instrument;
- Musicianship, where the performance may lack in technique, interpretation, or memory (if required);
- Basic musical skills, such as incorrect rhythm or pitch, or poor intonation.

Instrumental Level Exam Requirements for Non-Majors
Students who are not majoring in music education or the fine arts degree do not need to complete the Instrumental Level Exams; however, students enrolled in applied lessons, regardless of major, are required to complete a jury.
APPLIED INSTRUMENT REQUIREMENTS

2. Performance of one lyrical/technical etude selected by the applied instructor.
3. Performance of one solo work (or movement from a work) with piano accompaniment. Students may also perform an unaccompanied work of comparable length and technical requirements.

Criteria for Successful Completion of Level II
Students should be able to demonstrate the following technical and musical accomplishments:
• Perform with consistent and characteristic tone quality.
• Perform with proper posture and technique.
• Perform with stable intonation and rhythmic consistency.
• Perform repertoire with convincing, thoughtful, informed, and expressive interpretation.
• Perform all required repertoire at a high level.

Repertoire for Level II must represent a more advanced level of work done after the successful completion of the Level I Exam. Students may not repeat repertoire from the Level I Exam during the Level II Exam.

VOCAL STUDIES INFORMATION

Changing Voice Studios
If a student has problems with the studio assignment and wishes to change to another applied teacher, the procedure is as follows:

1. The student should speak to the applied teacher with any concerns;
2. The student should speak with the Vocal Studies Chair, who will offer counsel and act as a mediator if conflict arises;
3. If it is determined that a change should happen, the student must obtain a Student Release Form from the Vocal Studies Chair;
4. After discussing the concerns and the student's intentions, the teacher will sign the form, releasing the student from the studio at the end of the semester;
5. The student should arrange for an audition with another applied teacher prior to the beginning of the new semester;
6. At the audition, the prospective teacher may accept the student or suggest another teacher. Should the prospective teacher decline the student, the student is responsible to arrange another audition;
7. The new applied teacher will sign the release form and give it to the chair.

It is mandatory any studio change be completed by the end of the semester. Changing applied teachers during the semester is not possible.

Probationary Period
Students who fail to meet the minimum requirements of the studio may be placed into a probationary period by the teacher. Students will be notified in writing of any unsatisfactory item. Students who fail to meet the conditions of the writing may be removed from the studio.

Code of Ethics
It is often considered unethical to study voice with more than one teacher concurrently. In support of this position, it is prohibited that any student study or perform off-campus where the student may receive vocal coaching without prior consultation with their applied voice teacher. Failure to consult with the voice teacher may result in removal from the studio.

Concert Attendance Policy
All applied voice students are required to attend at least five (5) concerts each semester. Students must report this recital attendance to their voice teacher as required by studio policy. Compliance with the concert attendance policy will be a part of the student's semester grade.

Voice Level Exams and Procedures
Voice Level Exams are performance and repertoire outcomes every applied voice student must achieve to continue studying applied voice. There are two Voice Level Exams; the first exam must be completed by the end of the third semester of applied study, typically the middle of the second year of school; and the second exam must be completed by the end of the sixth semester of applied study, typically the end of the third year of school.

Procedure

2. Every student taking the exam must complete a Repertoire List Form prior to the end of the semester. The Repertoire List Form is available on the USCA music website. This form is a cumulative list of all works studied in Applied Voice up to the time of the exam. It is the student’s responsibility to have the applied teacher sign the form and notify the Vocal Studies Chair of the intent to complete the exam.

3. The tests are given one of the following grades by faculty vote:
   Pass: The student may continue in Applied Voice and work toward the next exam or recital.
   Conditional Pass: The student satisfied elements of the exam, but the faculty has concerns that are serious enough to merit a re-hearing at the next exam period. Any concerns or conditions of the re-hearing will be offered in writing and explained to the student by the applied teacher. If the concerns of the faculty are not addressed at the next hearing, the student may not proceed to the next exam or recital until the current exam is adequately satisfied.
   Fail: The student must repeat the exam during the next exam period due to significant inadequacies in preparation. A second consecutive failure of the exam results in removal from Applied Voice until the student demonstrates significant improvement or re-auditions for the faculty.

4. Students will be notified of the results by mail. Decisions of the faculty are final.

5. A student may attempt any Voice Level Exam twice.

6. Students should be prepared to give translations from memory of foreign language texts as a part of the exam.

Grievance Process
Should the student fail the exam a second time a grievance may be filed with the Vocal Studies Chair. The grievance should be submitted in writing and include a justification why the student believes the exam was adequately completed, or a proposed solution to meet the conditions of the exam. The chair will meet with the student and the applied teacher separately. Upon agreement of the teacher and chair, the student will be permitted to re-take the exam at the next exam period.

Conditions for an Exam Re-Take
Students may be asked to re-take either Voice Level Exam due to the following reasons:
- Insufficient repertoire, either in quantity or quality;
- Vocal production as it relates to tone, resonance, breath support, placement, or posture;
- Musicianship, where the performance may lack in diction, interpretation, or memory;
- Basic musical skills, such as correct rhythm and pitch, or poor intonation
